

His Receipt

When you cash a check you are required to write your name on the back of it. This is your receipt to the man who pays you. Why not require the man you pay to write HIS name on YOUR check? It is the best kind of a receipt. Open YOUR account at this Bank.

First National Bank
ASHLAND, OREGON.

Oldest National Bank in Jackson County

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

E. D. Briggs made a business trip to Jacksonville Tuesday. Society Circus May 12, Vining Theatre.

Miss Cora McCurry will leave the first of the week for Chico, Cal.

White canvass shoes and slippers at Ashland Trading Co.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Butler visited in Medford Tuesday evening.

Everybody come and learn the Swing Song May 12 at Vining.

C. E. Mack of Eugene was a business visitor in the city Monday.

The U. R. Wise and family have arrived in town to attend the Society Circus May 12.

Charles Haight is in a local hospital this week, where he will undergo an operation.

Leghorn straw hats are the latest novelties for spring. Price is $3. We have them. Mitchell & Whittle.

Miss Ruth Scott has resumed her former position as clerk in Butler's confectionery.

Laugh with the clown chorus May 12 at Vining.

Art Webber visited in Medford Tuesday evening and attended to business matters.

Ashland Dramatic Club at Vining May 12. Second series of three performances.

Mr. Owing of Rogue River is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. A. Beck, at her B street home.

Home canned cherries in glass jars at Ashland Trading Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Walker, tourists of Hoquiam, Wash., stopped over Monday evening in Ashland.

I have improved and modern facilities for repairing and manufacturing. O. H. Johnson, Jeweler. 97-1f

Charles H. Stewart of Albany arrived in the city yesterday for a visit combining business and pleasure.

Firestone tires give most miles per dollar. Ashland Garage. 98-2f

Mrs. G. C. Jacobs left Saturday for Roseburg, where she will visit for several days with Mrs. G. Edlund and family.

Vaudeville, choruses, novelties and a laughable Dutch playlet, Vining Theatre, May 12.

Pierce Wilson, who was run down by an automobile west of town several days ago, is still at Granite City hospital, gradually improving.

Of course you are going to the Society Circus May 12.

Richard Rome of Portland, a representative of the Pacific Fruit Express, was in the city Tuesday inspecting local storage and icing facilities and left Tuesday evening for the north.

We have another fresh supply of those good cottonade pants at $1. The wonder is how they can make them for the price. Mitchell & Whittle.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

---

Send it By Check

Why risk sending currency by mail?
It is safe, convenient and economical to pay by check—besides you secure the best possible receipt.
Bank with us by starting a checking account.

---

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Fern Balls

Imported from Japan

A New and Beautiful Fern. Requires no basket. They grow rapidly, and make a handsome ornament for the window, drawing room, or suspended from the chandelier. Price 75c.

Chinese Lyncoes or Blooming Water Plants, 10c each, 3 for 25c.

See Our Windows AT Poley's Drug Store
Poley & Elhart, Druggists.

Mrs. Ella Mills left Tuesday for San Francisco.

Ashland Dramatic Club at Vining May 12.

R. F. Boltz was a recent business visitor to Medford.

Society folks, see the Society Circus May 12. Vining.

Miss A. Johnson spent the weekend in Medford visiting with friends.

Firestone tires in stock. Ashland Garage. 98-2f

Mrs. T. C. Shaw of Nebraska is visiting at the home of Rev. Carnahan. Johnson the jeweler for fine watch work. 97-1f

The Medford co-operative cannery will start operations about the middle of June.

Firestone tires are good tires. Ashland Garage. 98-2f

Silk, lisle and mercerized socks 25 cents, colors pearl gray, white, black, tan and navy, at Mitchell & Whittle's.

J. C. Hayes was a Medford visitor Monday and spent the day transacting business.

A new assortment of Tiffany wedding rings in 14 and 18 K. at Johnson's Jewelry Store. 97-1f

W. A. Blowers returned to Ashland Tuesday after a stay of several weeks in Grants Pass.

Reduction sale on dress goods, blankets and quilts. Ashland Trading Co.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Reives spent Saturday in Medford transacting business and visiting friends.

Mrs. Lee Port, who has been visiting friends in the city during the past week, returned to Jacksonville Friday.

Hear Hodge's lecture on "Nature's Religion" Sunday, May 9, 8 p. m., Temple of Truth. All invited.

F. W. Mears of Medford was in town Tuesday renewing the acquaintance of friends and transacting business.

Ladies' fine hair ornaments, the only high class stock of its kind in the city. Johnson's Jewelry Store. 97-1f

Gene Childers was over from Klamath Falls the last of the week. He came to get his automobile which was stored here.

The most clever assortment of vaudeville stunts ever staged on the Vining Theatre stage. Dramatic Club vaudeville, Wednesday, May 12.

The "Girl Hiker Trio" who appeared recently at the Lyric Theatre here are still in the valley and have filled engagements at nearly all of the smaller towns.

Spirilla corsets give comfort and satisfaction. Try one. Call at 108 First avenue, or phone Mrs. H. O. Butterfield. 93-1f

Ernel Stearns and Earl Everett brought Houston Ling over from Klamath Falls Sunday in their auto and returned that evening to the Klamath county city.

For the man on the outside nothing better than a suit of that splendid whitecord at $4.25. Mitchell & Whittle.

Mr. and Mrs. John Colvig arrived Tuesday from Grants Pass and will make their home in this city. Mr. Colvig is a passenger brakeman running south out of Ashland.

All comrades are cordially invited to the Hodge lecture Sunday, May 9, 8 p. m., at the Temple of Truth.

Ed Walker of Medford, the new game warden for this district, was in town Tuesday on a trip through the upper end of the valley, during which he will refamiliarize himself with the lay of the country.

Indian war dance, May 12, Vining.

May Shaffer of this city was fifth in a subscription contest carried on lately by the Portland Telegram. While not getting into the prize list, the Ashland girl receives a cash commission on the subscriptions she has turned in.

Through The PANAMA CANAL

We have just received a big shipment of

Enamelware

direct from the factory.

Our saving in freight is 15 per cent. We will give this to our patrons.

See our windows and come and make your purchases at

Special Prices

on
Thursday, May 6th
Friday, May 7th
Saturday, May 8th

1000 Extra Grafonola Votes free with each piece of Enamelware, also Special Service Checks as follows:

1000 Votes with each	10c
5000 Votes with each	50c
10000 Votes with each	$1.00
50000 Votes with each	$5.00

Remember our Week-End Sales on Saturday on Garden Hose and Lawn Mowers.

100,000 Votes With Every Range
50,000 Votes With Every Range

The Grafonola Contest ends soon. Now is the time to pile up votes. By special effort, you can win the last month.

WARNER
The
Low Price Hardware Man
Phone 146 375 East Main St

You will always know that when the new season comes that every suit shown is new.

Pictorial Review, Summer Fashion Books and the June patterns are here.—Books 25c

Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant leaves for Portland Monday to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Marie Rice.

Fine Rogue river salmon. Plaza Market.

It's coming in six days. The Dramatic Club vaudeville at the Vining Theatre.

Our $3 pumps fit your head, feet and pocketbook. Briggs & Shinn.

Mrs. Orin Booth, wife of a well-known Southern Pacific fireman, is in the hospital undergoing an operation.

Barefoot sandals for every member of the family at Briggs & Shinn's.

Grapeine is a refreshing, healthful drink. It goes five times as far as grape juice. Sold at Ashland Trading Co., phone 122.

Child's calf, velvet and patent leather Mary Jane pumps. Briggs & Shinn.

C. T. Payne reports a distinct earthquake shock in his neighborhood east of town last night. The shock occurred at 4:30.

Get right on your feet with a pair of Scholl's Foot Easers. Briggs & Shinn.

Mrs. Chester Stevenson and daughter Margaret leave for Albany Saturday to spend two weeks with Mrs. Stevenson's mother.

If your watch does not give you satisfaction take it to Johnson the jeweler. 97-1f

Oregon-made suspenders, fresh and strong, both regular and unseen styles. 50c a pair at Mitchell & Whittle's.

That clown chorus will be a scream. Dramatic Club vaudeville, Vining Theatre, next Wednesday, May 12.

Mrs. P. N. Grisez was reported as dead on Tuesday of this week. The report is unfounded, Mrs. Grisez being ill at Montague but not seriously so.

Feel the joy of going barefoot in a pair of our barefoot sandals, without the danger of cuts and stonebruises. Briggs & Shinn.

Allen Davis and Andrew McGee left for Gazelle, Cal., Tuesday, in the vicinity of which they will further investigate the condition of the Western Star mine in which a number of Ashland parties are interested.

We are showing an exceptional good value and shape in a genuine Panama hat for $5. Mitchell & Whittle.

Mrs. R. W. Hewitt of Tacoma and Miss Nellie Cornelius and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Rudine of Mt. Vernon, Wash., made up a party of tourists who spent Tuesday in the city.

Don't forget May 12, Vining Theatre.

Chester Stevenson has been receiving a visit from Delmar A. Thompson of Pendleton, who with Elvin S. Crutchfield of Spokane has recently bought the Denel store at Medford. Crutchfield was a former resident of Medford nearly a score of years ago.

Extraordinary Clearance Sale of Suits

This Week $13.00

—for choice of any suit in our stock. Every suit a good new style. No old style suits and there will be none left over for next season, because—

Next week what are left will be marked down to $12.00

—and will drop $1.00 a week, every week they stay in stock. If one is left August 2nd it will be given to first customer who can use it.

$1.00 Silks at 75c

A dozen pieces of new silks in various colors and qualities worth regularly $1.00 a yard, now offered at 75c.

IMPORTED PONGEE

32-in. wide, 60c
A real imported pongee at the price of a domestic.

CREPE-DE-CHINE

40-in. wide, $1.25
Bought just when they were at the lowest and you are getting the advantage of our fortunate purchase. It is a real $1.50 value at $1.25.

35-in. Black Taffeta, ...	$1.25-$1.50
36-in. black Faille, ...	$1.75
36-in. black Peau-de-Soie, ...	$1.50
35-in. striped Taffeta, ...	$1.25
36-in. Messaline, colors, ...	$1.00

Summer Wash Goods

Printed Flaxons

The most popular fabric for inexpensive summer dresses in a big range of patterns.
17c-6 yds. for $1.00.

Renfrew Devonshire

The best for fast colors and long wear. 32 inches 20c.

PRINTED VOILES

36-in. printed silk, stripe voile	50c
40-inch printed voile, ...	35c
27-inch rice voile, ...	20c
27-in. printed Organdie, ...	25c
40-in. white Rice cloth, ...	25c
44-in. plain Voile, ...	50c
44-in. snowflake Voile, ...	50c
44-in. Lace Voile, ...	40c
27-in. Crepe Poplin, ...	30c

May 21st, the last day on which we will give or redeem our outstanding coupons.

In order to practically demonstrate Ashland's advertising slogan, "Where the Pine and the Palm Meet," at the suggestion of Mr. McWilliams the park commissioners have planted a pine and a palm near each other in the park and they are both growing splendidly.

Attorney F. W. Mears was up from Medford Tuesday on legal business and incidentally visiting friends. He looks a likely candidate for prosecuting attorney to succeed Prosecutor Kelly, and, of course, seeking the nomination on the republican ticket next April.

Mrs. Milton Berry, former well-known resident of Ashland and prominent in G. A. R. and W. R. C. circles, has shipped a box of ivy from her home in Vallejo, Cal., to the local militia company. Mrs. Berry saw an item in the Tidings stating that some of the ivy that was set out had not lived, and having quantities of Boston ivy around her Vallejo home, sent a box of clippings.

All of the pretty dolls that delighted the audience at the last Dramatic Club entertainment will be there and more too at the vaudeville next Wednesday, May 12.

Lyric Theatre

Attraction Extraordinary

The Kenworthy Players
with
Helen Duffy

Will present the following:

"Charley's Aunt" "A Woman's Revenge"
"The Thief's Daughter" "The Harem Girl"
"Lena Rivers" "Lend Me Your Wife"
"Are You Crazy"

CHANGE OF BILL NIGHTLY
Together With Four Reels of Photo-Plays
Prices 10c and 20c.